

The Bottom 95% Has Moved!

Back in 1995 I created the Bottom 95% award as a way to recognize those pages that were not on the Top 5% lists of any web site. Keeping the list of Bottom 95% sites, as you can imagine, quickly became more than I could handle, and I passed along the duties of keeping the list to Ben Guaraldi, who seemed to have more time for this. Then in 1998 control passed to Rob Taylor. He even got a great easy-to-remember URL:

<http://www.bottom95.com>

Take a look at his page (after you're done with looking at my pages, of course!) Sorry for any inconvenience, and thanks for your support.
